

Appointment of New UK Sales Manager

XCEL Power Systems Ltd are pleased to announce the appointment of Martin Langmead as their new UK Sales Manager with effect from 2 November 2009.

Martin has a long history of working in power supply sales and technical roles. From an apprenticeship at MANWEB (Merseyside and North Wales Electricity Board) he progressed into power supply sales with Powerline Electronics. From there he took the role of Regional Manager at XP PLC with sales and technical support roles before working at Ultimate Renaissance, NU Horizons and Ideal Power respectively prior to joining Xcel Power Systems.

Martin brings a wealth of experience to XCEL and will be instrumental in achieving our aim of continuously improving the level of service we provide to our customers.
